THE CITY OF
COLUMBUS

Columbus was founded in 1812 at the confluence of the Scioto and Olentangy rivers. In 1803, the year of Ohio's statehood, the capital was moved from Chillicothe, located 45 miles to the south, to Zanesville, located 50 miles to the east, and back to Chillicothe. Created specifically to be the capital city, state officials finally selected a centralized location in Columbus in 1812 and the city officially became Ohio's permanent capital in 1816.

Currently, Columbus maintains its ranking of the 14th most populated city in the United States. Covering 226 square miles, the city is recognized nationwide for its historic neighborhoods, booming downtown arts and sporting districts, open attitude, and notably affordable quality of life. The city's economy is very diverse, and the community prides itself on being at the forefront of education reform, fiscal responsibility, and public safety.

Economic investments in the future of Columbus have created jobs and spurred major initiatives focused on improving neighborhoods, community health, and the environment.
